Eastern Iowa Chapter

The Eastern Iowa Chapter gives professional communicators an opportunity to build skills, collaborate, and share experiences and challenges.

We offer informative, current programs and webinars of interest to technical communicators using both local and national presenters.

Meetings are typically held the second Tuesday of each month from September through May in the Cedar Rapids/Iowa City area.

Meetings give attendees face-to-face networking opportunities with local colleagues.

Join us to broaden your circle of professional contacts and strengthen your knowledge base!

The Eastern Iowa Chapter website gives information on the local chapter, meetings, and employment opportunities.

The site links to international STC sites that include information on upcoming conferences and events as well as articles from the STC publication Intercom and book reviews from its sister publication, Technical Communication.

Mission Statement

The Eastern Iowa Chapter of the Society for Technical Communication (STC) provides professional, social, and community service activities for technical communicators in Cedar Rapids, Iowa City, Waterloo, Dubuque, and the surrounding area.

The chapter is led by an executive committee comprised of a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer. Other appointed positions include public relations, web master, and membership.
